2. The Debtors are hereby authorized, but not directed, to continue and/or modify, change, or discontinue the Compensation and Benefits and to honor and pay on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course and in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and prepetition practices, any obligations on account of the Compensation and Benefits, irrespective of whether such obligations arose prepetition or postpetition; provided that the Debtors shall not make any payment to, or on account of, any individual with respect to any prepetition claim in excess of the priority cap of $15,150 set forth in section 507(a) (4) or 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, further, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized to pay two employees an amount above the priority cap set forth in section 507(a)(4)and 507(a)(5) as follows:

3. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these Chapter 11 Cases with respect to any prepetition amounts owed to their Employees and Independent Contractors.

The Debtors shall not make any bonus, incentive, or severance payments to their Employees, Independent Contractors, or any Insiders (as such term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) without further order of this Court. Nothing in the Motion, the Interim Order, or this Final Order shall constitute a determination by the Court as to whether any individual seeking payment pursuant to this Final Order is or is not an “insider” as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in the Motion or in this Final Order should be construed as approving any transfer pursuant to Section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors to cash out unpaid vacation/leave time except upon termination of an employee, if applicable state law requires such payment.

5. The automatic stay of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent applicable, is hereby lifted to permit, without further order of this Court: (a) current or former Employees to proceed with their claims (whether arising prior to or subsequent to the Petition Date) under the Workers’ Compensation Programs in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum; (b) insurers and third-party administrators to handle, administer, defend, settle, and/or pay workers’ compensation claims and direct action claims; (c) the Debtors to continue the Workers’ Compensation Programs and pay any amounts relating thereto postpetition in the ordinary course of business; and (d) insurers and third-party administrators providing coverage for any workers’ compensation or direct action claims to draw on any and all collateral and/or prefunded loss accounts provided by or on behalf of the Debtors therefor, if and when the Debtors fail to pay and/or reimburse any insurers and third-party administrators for any amounts in relation thereto. The modification of the automatic stay in this paragraph pertains solely to claims under the Workers’ Compensation Programs and direct action claims.

6. Nothing herein (a) alters or amends the terms and conditions of the Workers’ Compensation Programs; (b) relieves the Debtors of any of their obligations under the Workers’ Compensation Programs; (c) precludes or limits, in any way, the rights of any insurer to contest

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to forward any unpaid amounts on account of Withholding and Deduction Obligations or Employer Payroll Taxes to the appropriate third-party recipients or taxing authorities in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and practices.

8. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay costs and expenses incidental to payment of the Compensation and Benefits obligations, including all administrative and processing costs and payments to the Wage and Service Providers.

10. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized and directed to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

12. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed: (a) an admission as to the validity of any particular claim against the Debtors; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Final Order or the Motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; or (g) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) satisfied pursuant to the Motion are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve their rights to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens. Any payment made pursuant to this Final Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

13. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) are satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise deemed waived.

16. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.
